

Brief biography for the head of delegate from China

The head of delegate from China for 2018 APER forum is Ms. CHEN Tao, born in 1969 and graduated from Tsinghua University. She is the Deputy General Director of department of market regulation of National Energy Administration as well as the deputy chairman and general secretary of technical standardization of electricity regulation commission. Before the current position, she worked as Deputy General Director of department of transmission regulation of National Electricity Regulatory Commission. She has rich experience on energy regulation especially on electricity, oil and gas area, as well as electricity reform and establishment of electricity market and so on.